TechTalk© International

'To know us is to know how'

TechTalk© is an innovative web-based e-advisory and mentoring service for Farmers in Wales.

A TechTalk© subscription offers:

- o Unlimited access to the specialist knowledge and expertise of an impressive panel of nationally and internationally respected advisors drawn from British Universities, Professional Associations and Farmers with peer-acknowledged specialities.
- o Handpicked consultants, chosen to meet your specific needs, answer questions as they arise at a fraction of the cost of face-to-face consultancy.
- o Get it right first time – our experienced experts can save you time and money.
- o Fast, friendly and flexible service that can be used anywhere with Internet access.
- o Personalised mentoring especially designed for new projects and programmes.
- o One to two day's consultancy fee gives you a year's unlimited question and answer opportunities; or Register at a reduced rate and purchase your consultations as you need them.
- o If required, opportunities for more detailed, face-to-face follow-ups through AA International Ltd at discounted rates are also available.
